Annual Report for the academic session 2020- 2021

In the academic session 2020-21 a total of 73 Christian students were enrolled in the first semester. An online meeting with the Christian minority students along with the other SC, ST, OBC and minority students was held and they were addressed by the convenor of the committee who asked them to report their academic and/or any other problems that they were facing. The students were assured of remedial classes as and when they needed it. The first semester students were also informed about the Govt. scholarships namely Aikyashree, Oasis, Swami Vivekananda and freeship offered by the college that they could benefit from.
