Annual Report for the academic session 2022- 2023

In the academic session 2022- 23 a total of 35 Christian students were enrolled in the first semester. With regular offline classes resuming after almost two years of online learning the students were counselled and inducted into the college discipline. They were encouraged to ask questions and speak up regarding their confusions and problems if any. The students were also reminded that they could avail of the Govt. scholarships namely Aikyashree, Oasis and Swami Vivekananda scholarship and the facility of freeship offered by the college.
